

Francis Potter

Francis Potter grew up here on the North Shore and is an alumni of Rangitoto college and Auckland university.

Francis has two daughters, Maia and Julia, who are both at AJHS in years 7 and 8. He is currently Head of Faculty of Visual Art at Takapuna Grammar School. Francis has been a secondary art teacher and middle leader for over twenty years and lives and breathes education.

Francis was head of art at the British school of Warsaw and has been a teacher in the UK, Poland and New Zealand. He is the current chair of the Auckland secondary art teachers association and was chair of the Aotearoa New Zealand association of art educators for five years.

He is currently an active member of the AJHS PTA. Francis is very keen to lend his skill set as an educator, leader and parent to the successful steering of the AJHS waka.
